

Quality policy

Improvement of media and telecommunications environment and provision of social welfare based on continuous communication with interested parties (stakeholders), effective management of resources, promotion of competitive environment, alignment with international standards and establishment of transparent, fair and impartial regulatory environment.

The Communications Commission represents an independent, innovative, adaptive, effective, transparent organization with highly qualified staff. The organization is focused on permanent improvement of competencies, quality and protection of consumer rights.

Kakhi Bekauri

Chairman

03.06.2020

